1. Call to Order.

2. Presentation of “Temporary NFPA Technical Meeting Convention Rules for 2020”. In light of the significant impact that COVID-19 is having on the world, NFPA recently announced a decision to cancel the 2020 NFPA Conference & Expo®. The Technical Meeting will continue to be held, but in an electronic format this year. NFPA staff proposed Temporary NFPA Technical Meeting Convention Rules for 2020 to address the unique format for the meeting, while preserving the essential elements core to the NFPA standards development process.
